

Interpretive Intern Wornall/Majors House Museums

Job Description

Interpreting artifacts, documents and historical topics are crucial for museum educational programs. The Wornall/Majors House Museums (WMHM) manages two historic homes with unique challenges and assets. WMHM is seeking one individual with a passion for bringing history to life for members of the public by leveraging the historic house museum setting to create “micro-exhibits” or programs.

Responsibilities

- Research the Wornall and/or Majors families and explore WMHM’s collections to find possible themes or topics for interpretation.
- Research, create and execute a mini-exhibit or program based on research.
- Write interpretive text, either for exhibit signage or script for a program.
- Work with Program Director to market and plan exhibit/event.
- Assist with other educational programs that occur during the internship period.
- Other administrative tasks as assigned.

Requirements

- Strong research and writing skills, preferably with experience writing research papers, articles, or other written works. (This can include classwork.)
- Willingness to accept feedback and constructive criticism, and ability to edit and incorporate feedback.
- Attention to detail and ability to develop and execute short and long-term plans.
- Ability to clearly convey information and timelines to WMHM staff and volunteers.
- Interest in mid-nineteenth century history, preferably with some classwork done on nineteenth century topics such as the Civil War, Victorian life, slavery or women’s history.
- Experience or education in public history or museum studies.

Details

Start and end dates flexible. Interns work for one “season” (February-May, June-August, or September-December), 10-12 hours per week.

This is an unpaid position. We will work with students to ensure that an internship qualifies for school credit.

Intern will work primarily out of our Wornall House location (6115 Wornall Rd., KCMO), but may do some work at the Majors House (8201 State Line Rd., KCMO), depending on focus of project.

To apply, please submit a resume, cover letter and writing sample to Sarah Bader-King at programs@wornallmajors.org.

About Interning at the Wornall/Majors House Museums

The Wornall/Majors House Museums is a non-profit that preserves and protects two of Kansas City's most significant antebellum landmarks – the John Wornall House Museum and the Alexander Majors House Museum. The Museums engage the Kansas City community by bringing history to life through innovative, hands-on programs and experiences. The houses, both listed on the National Register of Historic Places, feature hands-on tours, field trips, summer camps, adult education programs, and more.

Our interns will experience many facets of museum management, educational programming and non-profit administration. We value our interns and go the extra mile to make sure you receive a learning experience that fits your career goals. Internships can be tailored to fit requirements for college credit.
